

KINDER BOOK REPORTS

Students will accurately represent a story element from any fiction book.

Students can choose any option below to present their book report:

- Diorama- Students will construct a shoe box diorama to portray setting of story
- Role Play-Students will identify a main character in the story and retell major story elements from the characters point of view. Students may use simple props such as baskets, canes, and hats.
- Little Book- Students will construct a 6 page "little book" reflecting events of a story in sequential order.

Your child is able to choose any fictional book they would like to complete their book report. Please make sure they are able to orally present information to the class. This will be used as the show and tell for the week of November 26th. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns please let me know.
